A community-run urban garden in Dijon

Structure : Greenery in the city

Dijon | Burgundy-Franche-Comté

A community-run urban nursery in Dijon

Our mission: To support residents in greening their local environment.

We offer:

- Workshops
- Sustainable production of young plants
- Introductory sales
- Planting events
- Community projects

Offering all residents the chance to grow their own plants in the brand-new Jeanne-Barret Park. This is the goal of the association Du Vert dans la ville, which also regularly organizes plant sales.

Bringing greenery into the city is becoming an increasing need for many city dwellers.
