How does it work?

We come to cook and/or eat

At La Tablée, there are no professional chefs. We don't sit back and relax—we roll up our sleeves and get to work! Every guest helps ensure the meal runs smoothly, guided by the host. Whether you're coming to eat or cook, you need to reserve your spot!

What do we eat? Homemade and local

Here we enjoy balanced, vegetarian dishes that delight both the palate and the appetite. Meals are prepared with fresh, local, seasonal, and mostly organic ingredients—but above all, with love!

Where and when?

- Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday
- Kitchen: 9 AM to 12 PM

- Meals: 12 PM to 2 PM
- Social atmosphere: starting at 2 PM

How much does it cost? Pay what you wish

At La Tablee, money shouldn't stand in the way of "eating well," which is why meals are offered at a pay-what-you-wish price. This means that each guest pays what they feel is fair, based on their experience, their means, and the principle of solidarity.
