RESOURCE CENTER FOR PROMOTING COMMUNITY EDUCATION FOR DEVELOPMENT BASED ON SOLIDARITY

Structure : CIDES

Toulouse Occitanie

INFORMATION CENTER FOR SOLIDARITY-BASED DEVELOPMENT

CIDES was founded in 1981 by a collective of Toulouse-based international solidarity associations and is a member of the RITIMO network.

Run by volunteers, its main objective is to “promote popular education for solidarity-based development.” CIDES hosts meetings and events (debates, workshops, etc.) for its member associations.

Our objectives

CIDES is a documentation center whose objectives are: To collect, process, and disseminate information that contributes to “education for development and international solidarity.” To contribute to the discussion on international solidarity (...)

Get involved

Taking action for a different world, one that is more respectful of all people and nature, is possible!

There are many possibilities: going abroad, of course, as a volunteer… but also by showing solidarity close to home.

There are many ways to get involved: CIDES can help everyone find their place!

- Go abroad to show solidarity

You have an international solidarity project, but… how do you get started? With which organization? How do you prepare for your departure, but also for your return? CIDES and its partner e-graine are joining forces to support candidates in planning their departure.
CIDES offers everyone (…)

- Join the CIDES team!

Documentation, Programming, Internet.... Whatever your skills, you can contribute to CIDES’s activities. CIDES is run by volunteers who handle: welcoming the public (information, document loans), managing the collection, maintaining the website, and (…)

- Spotlight on the Artisans du Monde association

A non-profit and activist distribution network, Artisans du Monde has championed a committed vision of fair trade since 1974. Artisans du Monde stores are places where the public can purchase 100% fair trade products, but also learn, educate themselves, and get involved in promoting a fairer global trade. (...)
