develops and manages the Jardins de Cocagne network: farms dedicated to vocational rehabilitation that are certified organic

Structure : Cocagne Network

The Cocagne Network is a nonprofit organization that develops and coordinates the Cocagne Gardens network: farms dedicated to social and professional integration that are certified as “Organic Agriculture”

Objective: To support the ecological and social transition of our regions in order to:

- To foster regions of social justice and inclusion

- To promote an ecological transition that benefits everyone

- To support solidarity-based organic food projects

- To promote local, social, and solidarity-based economic development

By the numbers:

108 Jardins de Cocagne across France

6,220 people supported per year

706 hectares of organic farming

140,000 solidarity food baskets distributed

7,320 employees across France

79% of the Jardins innovate beyond agricultural production
