A place for living and sharing that nourishes people and their minds

GRAIN&SENS is a project that aims to create a place for living and sharing, driven by a shared desire to find a more just way of living, cultivating the land, and educating, to find fulfillment within a collective project, and to share skills and life wisdom. Combining modernity and simplicity, living with awareness and kindness, GRAIN&SENS cares for nature, nourishes the bodies and hearts of men and women—from children to the elderly—thus fostering balance in everyone.

Philosophy of communal living

- Sharing and pooling of spaces, resources, time, and activities (meals, education, childcare, etc.)

- Common spaces

- Caring communication

- Artistic expression
