DIVE INTO THE HEART OF THE ACTION

Let’s join forces to preserve, clean up, and protect our Mediterranean. Association Mer Veille, on the ground and in the water, always ready for action.

Our upcoming operations.

In Marseille, we work to preserve the Mediterranean by removing the waste that threatens its biodiversity. Every action counts! Join us for our upcoming operations to take concrete action and protect our sea.

Every year, Mer Veille actively engages in cleaning up the seabed around Marseille, mobilizing volunteers, divers, and ocean enthusiasts. Our operations are much more than just cleanups: they are moments of connection with the sea, of raising awareness about environmental issues, and of protecting a fragile ecosystem. Check out our website for upcoming events, and join us to take concrete action in support of marine biodiversity throughout the year.
