Initiatives to promote architectural, social, and environmental awareness

Structure : Occitanie-Mediterranean House of Architecture (MAOM)

Difficulté : facile

Montpellier Occitanie

The Maison de l'Architecture Occitanie Méditerranée (MAOM) organizes numerous initiatives aimed at promoting architectural, urban, and landscape culture to everyone.
A space for sharing, exchange, inquiry, and debate: the MAOM aims to anchor its initiatives in the social, societal, and environmental dimensions related to architecture, the city, and our regions.

The initiatives led by MAOM reflect a wide range of activities:“Archicity” tours and urban walks
. Architecture awareness workshops. School outreach programs. Conferences, meetings, and roundtables
. Exhibitions
. Screenings
. Student competitions
. Drawing competitions

In addition to its year-round cultural program, MAOM actively participates in national events (National Architecture Days, Heritage Days, etc.) and regional events (Occitanie Architecture Month, Rendez-Vous de l’Architecture, etc.).

The MAOM is also part of the Network of Houses of Architecture, which brings together 33 organizations throughout France.

The Maison de l’Architecture exists for and with the general public!
As a non-profit organization under the 1901 law, it is the support of our members, institutions, and local authorities that enables us to sustain our operations and initiatives, develop new ones, and encourages us in achieving our goals.
