#collection #integration

A network promoting integration through economic activity that brings together 70 organizations specializing in the textile industry: clothing collection, sorting, washing, ironing, sewing, sales, and more

Structure : "Weaving Solidarity" Network

Difficulté : facile

Tissons la Solidarité

The Network:

We bring together 70 economic integration organizations affiliated with Tissons, whose primary activity is the management of secondhand textiles (collection, sorting, resale, and sewing). These products are then sold in 125 stores open to the public.

In-store and online sales:

By purchasing one of our upcycled garments, you are choosing:

- A product that gets a second life. Upcycling involves transforming the style or functionality of a garment
- A garment that has been handcrafted by talented seamstresses in a work-integration program, who are giving themselves every chance to find employment

We offer training in recycling techniques (sewing, alterations) and sales, and support entrepreneurs looking to open "secondhand" stores.
