Occitanie

Through its economic, social, and community-based activities in the local area, Envie positions itself as a learning organization. It contributes to social integration through economic activity, support, and vocational training for people in vulnerable situations who face difficulties in accessing employment.

Through its involvement in the development of the circular economy, Envie collects and refurbishes household appliances, which are then put back on the market at affordable prices and with a warranty. In this way, Envie extends the lifespan of our everyday items, reduces waste, and helps preserve natural resources.

Available products: Major appliances Small appliances

Services offered After-Sales Service Delivery and Installation

With a presence in the Southwest for over 20 years, Envie Occitanie already operates in Toulouse and Limoges.

Through its commitment to the circular economy, Envie collects and refurbishes household appliances, which are then put back on the market at affordable prices and with a warranty. In this way, Envie extends the lifespan of our everyday items, reduces waste, and helps preserve natural resources.
